

Guarantees of Origin

Parameta Solutions provides daily End of Day price assessments for Guarantee of Origin certificates. Sourced directly from ICAP's brokerage desks in Bergen, Norway, this offers reliable and independent data for market participants.

Background

The Guarantee of Origin (GO) market in Europe, managed by the Association of Issuing Bodies (AIB), plays a crucial role in verifying and certifying the renewable origin of electricity.

- GOs certify that a specific amount of energy (1 MWh) has been produced from renewable sources. This helps consumers and businesses verify the green credentials of their energy consumption.
- The AIB oversees the GO market across 30 European countries, facilitating cross-border trade of GOs through a centralized registry system.

Key benefits

Unlock the Power of Transparency with Daily GO Assessments:

- Accurate Pricing: Stay ahead with precise, up-to-date pricing information, including bid/offer and mid prices.
- Market Coverage: Leverage ICAP's circa 30% market share and GO expertise.
- Risk Management: Navigate price volatility with ease. Optimize your trading strategies and financial planning with timely data published at 4:30PM (GMT).
- Regulatory Compliance: Manage compliance with current data. Simplify reporting and meet regulatory requirements effortlessly.
- Investment decision: Evaluate and optimize your renewable energy investments by leveraging historic data back to 2010.
